Description:

In the Villány wine region portugieser is a variety that can be found in every cellar. In the 'Legend of the devil plowed hill' it is represented by the cat. We couldn't live everyday life without it. A thirst-quenchingly fruity, nice and easygoing wine that 'purrs' and flatters – a wine that feels good to drink every day! The varietal specific red berries on the nose are rounded off by a combination of sour cherry, plum and sloe on the palate. Its tannins are soft and velvety.
